JAMES R. CHO, United States Magistrate Judge:

Plaintiffs Ernesto Zenteno and Noe Huey ("Plaintiffs"), have started a lawsuit against Defendants Regina's Family Pizza Inc. d/b/a Regina's Pizzeria ("Regina's Pizzeria"), and Michael Ward (collectively, "Defendants"). You are receiving this notice as one of the Defendants.

Plaintiffs allege that you owe them unpaid wages and penalties under federal and state law. Plaintiffs are seeking tens of thousands of dollars in damages.

You are receiving this notice because you have not answered or otherwise responded to the Court about the Plaintiffs' allegations. Plaintiffs claim that you have received written notice of this lawsuit.

Plaintiffs have asked the Court to enter a default judgment in their favor against you. Plaintiffs have asked the Court to conclude: (1) that you do not oppose Plaintiffs' allegations, or disagree with their claims; and (2) that Plaintiffs are entitled to judgment in the full amount they claim you owe them. This amount may total more than tens of thousands of dollars for which you may be responsible. If you continue to fail to participate, the Court may grant Plaintiffs' request and enter the default judgment.

A judgment is a public record with significant potential consequences, particularly if you do not pay the judgment. Plaintiffs may be allowed to enforce an unpaid judgment through various methods against you.

Enclosed is an order scheduling a Telephone Conference for January 12, 2021 at 11:30 a.m. (EST) to discuss Plaintiffs' motion asking the Court to enter default judgment against you. You may participate in the conference by calling 888-808-6929 and typing in the access code 106-5334. As an individual defendant, you may have a lawyer appear for you. Corporate defendants must be represented by counsel.

On or before January 5, 2021, if you would like to inform the Court and Plaintiffs of your views, including as to whether you received notice about the lawsuit prior to this notice, or what your factual and legal objections are to Plaintiffs' claims, you may send a letter or statement to the Court and to Plaintiffs' counsel, whose information is at the bottom of the page. If you did not receive a copy of the complaint, you may request one from Plaintiffs' lawyer or the Clerk of Court. Any letter or statement to the Court should clearly identify the case name and number from the caption of this notice and can be mailed or delivered to:
